

LUNACON 2009

March 20-22, 2009

Hilton Rye Town, Rye Brook, NY

Dear Artist,

You are invited to enter the LUNACON 2009 Art Show. We will have our usual 120 smooth pegboard panels and 10-12 tables for the display of your art. We usually sell out quickly (and have a Wait List most years), so you must reserve your space in advance.

We charge only hanging fees for original art; we do not charge a commission. We WILL have a Print Shop display area this year—see the rules and FAQ for the rules and fees. You do not need to buy a membership to the convention in order to display art, but must do so if you wish to attend the rest of the convention.

Friday evening we will have our traditional Art Show Reception for artists, agents, program participants, members of the publishing community, and Lunacon staff.

There will be awards given in several categories, including Popular Choice Awards for both Professional and Amateur (voted on by the attendees), Judges' Choice Awards (including Best In Show), and Guest of Honor Awards.

Enclosed or attached are the Art Show Rules and the space reservation form. PLEASE READ ALL THE ART SHOW RULES CAREFULLY, ESPECIALLY THE CHANGES FOR PRINT SHOP! If you have any questions, you can call me at 1-973-337-1080 at any time. There is an answering machine so please leave your name, phone number, and best time to return your call. Or you can e-mail me at classywench@juno.com.

I hope to hear from you soon and look forward to displaying your work at the Lunacon 2009 Art Show.

Sincerely,

Andrea Senchy

Art Show Director
